Customer Service Training

DEFINE & DELIVER YOUR UNIQUE SERVICE STYLE

This program helps participants understand how all levels of the organization contribute to the overall impression conveyed to the consumer, and it offers useful ways to establish a successful relationship.

The program focus is on the necessary tools to create a positive ongoing relationship with customers using proactive, rebound, problem solving and recognition strategies. The goal is to create a culture that serves both internal and external customers.

EXPECTATIONS:

- Understand how poor service destroys and how to create service.
- Practice the 6 customer service imperatives that most neglect.
- How to de-escalate negative customer service experiences.
- Define proactive strategies that create customer loyalty.
- Establish rebound strategies to recover dissatisfied customers.
- Cultivate a positive experience for customers, clients and coworkers.
- Define and develop an action plan to deliver WOW! Customer Service.

“We enjoyed the interactive program that was a lot of fun. Great program for any company interested in fostering teamwork and positive communication to achieve organizational goals.” -Darrell Plummer, President, Sierra Nevada Properties

“Breakthrough helps light the fire, passion, excitement of our staff to work as a team. Jeffrey has worked with our team for over the last year to achieve our goals of serving our customers.” -Rick Stevens, Director of Operations, Boys & Girls Club of Truckee Meadows

“I have utilized Jeff in different enterprises to develop high performance teams responsible for growing business. In each instance he did a great job tailoring the program for our needs.” -Graham Leonard, VP Sales, Polargy
